

Connecting ORCID id with Author ID at Scopus

1. Log in to your ORCID account: <https://orcid.org/signin>

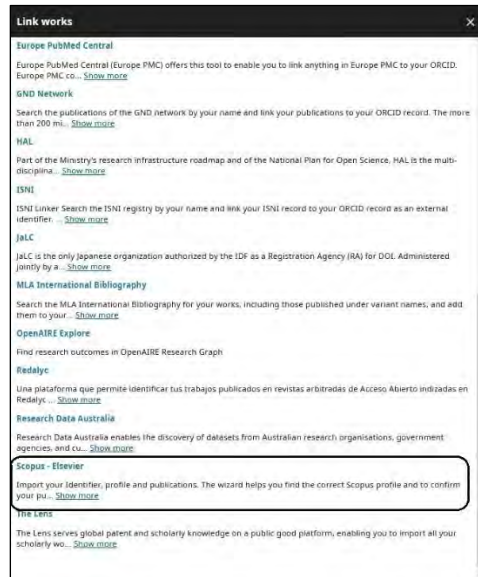

The image shows the ORCID sign-in page. At the top is the ORCID logo (a green circle with 'ID' in white). Below it is the text 'Sign in to ORCID'. A link says 'Don't have your ORCID ID yet? Register now'. There are two input fields: 'Email or ORCID ID' and 'Password'. Below these is a 'Sign in to ORCID' button. A link 'Forgot your password or ORCID ID?' is below the button. Below that is an 'OR' separator. There are two more options: 'Sign in through your institution' with a building icon and 'Sign in with Google' with the Google logo.

2. In the Works tab, select Search & link to add publications.

The image shows an ORCID profile page with several sections: 'Names', 'Biography', 'Activities', 'Employment', 'Education and qualifications', 'Professional activities', 'Funding', and 'Works'. The 'Works' section is highlighted with a green bar and a black box around the 'Works (0)' label. A black arrow points from the 'Works (0)' label to the 'Add' button (a green circle with a white plus sign) in the 'Works' section. Another black arrow points from the 'Add' button to a dropdown menu that is open, showing options: 'Search & link', 'Add DOI', 'Add PubMed ID', 'Add BioRx', and 'Add manually'. The 'Search & link' option is highlighted with a black box.

3. Select Scopus- Elsevier.

4. Click the Authorize access button to enable connection between ORCID and Scopus.

5. Next, you will be redirected to the Scopus website. Please select the appropriate profile and click Next to confirm.

7. If there are any publications missing, click Search for missing documents, and add them to your profile.

The screenshot displays the Scopus ORCID interface. At the top, the Scopus ORCID logo is visible. Below it, a progress bar shows three steps: 1) Add publications, 2) Review publications, and 3) Review your publications. The 'Review your authored publications' section is active, displaying a list of publications with checkboxes for selection. The publications listed are:

- Document Title: Assessment of the possibility of using biomarkers (ECCT-11 and YGE-101) in the diagnosis of prostate plant hyperplasia in dogs. Authors: Kozlov, J. Kozlov, T. Goryunov.
- Genotypes and Viruses of BKPyV in Organ Donors after Brain Death. Author: Vitek, A. Kozlov.
- Molecular Epidemiology and Virulence of the BK Polyomaviruses in the Population of Central and Eastern Europe Based on the Example of Poland. Authors: Furman, O. Kozlov, L. Jurek.

On the right side, a 'Search for missing documents' modal is open. It contains a text input field for 'Article title' with the example 'E.g. "Heart attack" AND stress' and a 'Search' button. Below the input field, a message states: 'Look up the documents that are not listed by using the form below. Please be aware that some documents might not be in Scopus at the moment and therefore will not be shown.'

9. Enter and confirm your e-mail address. Click Send Author ID.

The screenshot shows the 'Send the Scopus ID to ORCID' step in the registration process. A progress bar at the top indicates steps 1 through 6, with step 5 'Send Author ID' highlighted. Below the header, a message states: 'Thank you for checking your profile. Your Scopus ID is now ready to be sent to ORCID.' There are two input fields: 'E-mail*' and 'Confirm E-mail*'. A placeholder text for the email field reads: 'Please enter your institutional or professional email address (e.g. name@university.edu)'. At the bottom right, there is a 'back' link and a 'Send Author ID' button.

10. Click Send my publication list to allow Scopus connecting with ORCID.

The screenshot shows the 'Scopus Author ID submitted' step. The progress bar at the top highlights step 6 'Send publications'. A message states: 'Your Author ID has been sent to ORCID. However, before we can send your publication list we must ask your permission. If you wish to send your list of publications to ORCID, please continue to the next step. Alternatively you can return to ORCID.' At the bottom right, there is a 'return to ORCID' link and a 'Send my publication list' button.

11. In the left-hand panel at ORCID there will be an indication of your profile being connected with Scopus Author Id.

The screenshot shows an ORCID iD profile page. On the left is a sidebar with various sections: 'Emails', 'Websites & social links', 'Other IDs', 'Keywords', and 'Countries'. The 'Other IDs' section is expanded, showing 'Scopus Author ID: #6' with a green checkmark icon. The main content area on the right includes sections for 'Names', 'Biography', 'Activities' (with a 'Collapse all' link), 'Employment (1)', and 'Education and qualifications (4)'. The 'Employment' section shows a record for 'Medical University of Lublin: Lublin, PL' from '1974-10-01 to present' in the 'Department of Biochemical Diagnostics'. A 'Printable version' link is visible in the top right corner.
